

G. Caboto Club Italian Culture Lecture Series - Autumn 2017

The History, Culture & Living Legacy of Italy's 20 Regions

From Pre Recorded History, Roman Era, Dark Ages, Renaissance, Unification, Mass Migration to Today
Part 2 of 3 In 6 Consecutive Tuesdays 7-9 PM

In Partnership with Canterbury ElderCollege (U of W)

Tue 19 Sept Basilicata

By Roberto Tonial

Beautiful Basilicata is the 'instep' of Italy's boot. Throughout history, Basilicata has not only been influenced by the welcoming Italian way of life but by Greek, French, Spanish and Arabian Invaders. The amazing town of Matera is known for its cave dwellings.

Tue 26 Sept Lombardia

By John & Matt Sgrazzutti

Lombardia features natural treasures of great charm. Thanks to beautiful mountains, lakes, parks and nature reserves, over 300 museums, works of art and monuments, it is a tourism mecca. The capital of Milano and the Lake Como area are the favourite attractions, but there is so much more!

Tue 3 Oct Sardegna

By Paolo Corda

The island of Sardegna has nearly 2000km of coastline, sandy beaches and a mountainous interior. Its rugged landscape is dotted with thousands of Bronze Age stone ruins. Sardegna has a deep, rich history and culture unlike the rest of Italy.

Tue 10 Oct Liguria

By Giuliano Lunardi

Liguria: The Italian Riviera where the Alps and the Apennines cascade into the Mediterranean. With a topography so demanding, it has shaped almost every facet of daily life. This is where you find the rich and famous Portofino peninsula and the secluded fishing villages of the Cinque Terre!

Tue 17 Oct Umbria

By Joe Giuliani

Umbria is the only region having neither a coastline nor a border with any other countries, and is known for its landscapes, traditions, culinary delights, artistic legacy, and medieval hill-towns. Umbria is often called the country's green heart, for its location and its forests.

Tue 24 Oct Piemonte

By Stefano Nicola

Piemonte, bordering France and Switzerland, is known for sophisticated cuisine and wines such as Barolo. Torino, the capital, has beautiful baroque architecture, and the entire region is full of stunning scenery and both exciting and relaxing things to do and see.

Giovanni Caboto Club ICLS Committee: Robert Brun, Rick Buzzeo, Andy & Donna Moro
For Info 519-252-8383 rbrun@cabotoclub.com rickbuzzeo@gmail.com www.cabotoclub.com

Caboto's Master Pizza Maker, will make Regional Pizzas, as only he can, for each presentation at a fantastic price of only $10 Good only on the presentation nights!

Help Promote & Preserve the Best of Italian Culture. Bring your Family and Friends